

AALLA (STRANGER) METCALFE

Aalla (Stranger) and Damian Metcalfe are a father/son duo who have been teaching Inuit games together for almost a decade. Aalla's dad is from Hebron, Labrador and his mom is from Den Haag, Netherlands. Damian's mom is from Arctic Bay, Nunavut. Together, they love teaching the games to anyone who is willing to try them out. Aalla used to win all the time, but in the past year Damian has started to win some games, and that makes his Dad really proud.
