

YOLANDA BRUNO

Since the age of 5, Yolanda has studied with Joan Milkson, David Stewart and Elaine Klimasko at the Conservatoire de musique de Gatineau and the Ottawa area. Twice winner at the Canadian Music Competition, Yolanda has received numerous awards and scholarships and has been a finalist in the OSM Standard Life Competition, the NACO Bursary, and the Stulberg International String Competition. Yolanda has attended the NAC's Young Artist Program, Le Domaine Forget, Banff Centre for the Arts, Orford Arts Centre, Encore, and the Casalmaggiore International Music Festival in Italy. Yolanda is currently finishing her undergraduate degree at McGill University studying with Jonathan Crow and is a recipient of the Lloyd-Carr Harris Scholarship.