

KERSON LEONG

Acclaimed for his commanding stage presence, magnificent tone, and musical integrity, Kerson Leong is quickly establishing himself at the forefront of his generation since gaining international recognition by winning Junior First Prize at the Menuhin Competition 2010. He has performed as soloist around the world with such ensembles as the Oslo Philharmonic, Vienna Chamber Orchestra, I Solisti Veneti, Toronto Symphony Orchestra, l'Orchestre symphonique de Quebec, l'Orchestre Métropolitain, and the National Arts Centre Orchestra. An avid chamber musician, he has also performed at many international music festivals and recital series in Europe, Asia, and North America. He is currently an Artist in Residence at the Queen Elisabeth Music Chapel in Belgium, mentored by Augustin Dumay. Mr. Leong is also the recipient of the Sylva Gelber Music Foundation Award 2016 and the Young Soloist Prize 2015 of the Radios Francophone Publiques. He performs on a c. 1728-1730 Guarneri del Gesu courtesy of Canimex Inc, Drummondville (Quebec), Canada.
