

ZAC PULAK

Based in Ottawa, Zac Pulak has been an active freelance percussionist since completing his undergraduate studies at the University of Ottawa. He was awarded a Bachelor of Music (performance) in 2014 and has performed with the finest ensembles in the city, including the National Arts Centre Orchestra, the Ottawa Symphony Orchestra, the Ottawa Choral Society, the Central Band of the Canadian Armed Forces, the Chamber Players of Canada, and the Ottawa Baroque Consort. His numerous festival credits include performances with Music and Beyond, the Ottawa International Chamber Festival, the Prince Edward County Music Festival, Festival Franco-Ontarian, Bluesfest and INNERChamber. Highlights of his career so far include performing as a soloist with the Ottawa Symphony Orchestra and taking part in the National Youth Orchestra of Canada's 2013 National tour. In addition to his work as a performer, Zac coaches the percussion section of the Ottawa Junior Youth Orchestra and holds a small studio of private students.
